Sir/Madam

- . Sub: Thiruvalluvar University, Vellore – Remittances of University fees – General fees, Affiliation fees, and all examination related fees – Remittances to be made only through RTGS/NEFT/CBS mode – Instructions issued – Not followed by some colleges – Requested not to send DDs – Remittances through only RTGS/NEFT/CBS mode – Reg.

Ref: This office Letter No. TVU/F2/Fee remittances through Bank/2014-15/3017 Dated: 23.04.2014.

I am by direction to state that though communication were sent in the reference cited letter, from 2014-15 onwards all fees have to be remitted to University Bank account directly through RTGS/NEFT/CBS mode. But some of the colleges are sending the fees by way of Demand Drafts collected from students and some colleges are allowing their students to remit their examinations fees by students individually through challans.

Hence it is once again requested not to send the fees collected by way of Demand Drafts from students instead these fees have to be collected by colleges and remitted to University's respective account as stated in the reference cited letter. Further students should not be allowed to remit the examination fees and other fees directly to university IOB account by challans instead they have to be collected by the colleges and consolidately remitted to University account as stated in the letter cited in the reference.

For ready reference the Annexure I to III which were already sent are again enclosed for furnishing the fees remittances particulars both in hard copy and soft copy, preferably in CD to University.

University's saving bank accounts maintained in IOB, Serkadu, Vellore – 632 115 are furnished below in which the fees have to be remitted directly through RTGS/NEFT/CBS mode.
